

Activity: Issues and political parties

When you vote for a candidate or a political party, you tell the government about what's most important to you. Knowing what issues are most important to you can help you decide which candidate or political party to vote for.

Here's a list of 8 issues that might be important to you. In the box next to each issue, write a number from 1-8: 1 means that this issue is the most important to you, and 8 means it's the least important issue to you. There's a space for you to make notes about why you think each issue is important. You can also add your own issue that's important to you.
